

Oolong Tea

Oolong tea is best known to most Americans as the complement to General Tso's Chicken at many Chinese restaurants. It is said that drinking oolong tea is among the best ways to fight the effects of aging on the skin. The varieties of oolong tea differ greatly in flavor, depending on the amount of time that the leaves are given to ferment.

Jasmine #5

Oolong tea from the Fujian province of China infused with the delicate scent of the night-blooming jasmine flowers. Adagio 'Jasmine Suite no. 5' is a Chun Hao grade tea that is a suitable daily treat. It produces a sweet cup with a light and lingering scent of fresh jasmine flowers. $4.00/oz

Oolong #18

Oolong tea from Taiwan. Formosa, meaning 'beautiful' was what the Dutch explorers called this island. The oolong teas grown here continue to be called as such. Unlike its dark brethren, this is a Jade Oolong tea, almost green in appearance with large, hand-rolled leaves. Once infused, these unfurl to release this tea's delicate notes, exquisite flavor and enchanting fragrance. $6.00/oz

Anteadote

Anteadote is pure, unsweetened tea, made with fresh tea leaves, not concentrate. Unlike the bottled teas found in your grocery, Anteadote contains no additives or preservatives. Filtered water, tea leaves, and vitamin C are its only ingredients. The results are pure refreshment and an abundance of health benefits in one convenient ice tea package.

Tea Menu

Infuser ball full (makes approx two mugs) - $1.50 all flavors
Loose leaf by ounce - priced as marked. (Note: white and green tea leaves are large and lightweight, so one ounce has much more volume.)

Black

Black tea is the most popular in the US. This is mainly due to the invention of the tea bag in 1904 by a NYC tea merchant. Recent studies have shown that black tea provides similar health benefits to its green cousin.

Assam Melody

Black tea from the Assam region of India that brews up a burgundy-red cup with rich aroma and strong malty taste. An ideal breakfast-time tea. This 'Assam Melody' is a flavorful second-flush (summer) tea. $3.50/oz

Ceylon Sonata

Black tea from Sri Lanka, an island nation known in colonial times as Ceylon. Ceylon tea is bright and lively, with a wonderfully delicate flavor. The perfect afternoon tea. $3.00/oz

Golden Monkey

Black tea from the Fujian province of China. Golden Monkey tea is hand-processed each spring with a careful plucking of only one leaf and one bud. The name comes from its unique appearance: the leaves resemble monkey claws. A full-bodied tea with an abundance of flavor. $5.50/oz

Yunnan Gold

Black tea from the Yunnan region of China. Yunnan tea is easily identified by its luscious soft leaves, and a unique peppery taste. Our 'Yunnan Gold' as the name implies is an exceptional quality tea with beautiful gold-colored leaves and an abundance of rich peppery flavor. $8.25/oz

Earl Grey

Sri Lankan tea, flavored with oil of bergamot, a citrus fruit. According to (untrue) legend, named for a British Prime Minister who saved a Chinese nobleman's life. The perfect afternoon tea. $3.00/oz

Rooibos Tea

Rooibos is a flavorful, caffeine-free alternative to regular teas. Also known as Red Tea, rooibos tea gained popularity during WWII when limited tea supplies from Asia forced Europeans to find an alternative. With the many amazing health benefits surfacing and many flavors available, rooibos tea has far surpassed its role as an alternative beverage. Adagio's rooibos teas are also organic!

Rooibos

Rooibos, colloquially known as Red Tea, is an herbal plant that grows in South Africa. Rooibos is a flavorful, caffeine-free alternative to tea for those seeking to eliminate caffeine intake. $2.50/oz

Rooibos Almond

Flavored with roasted almonds. $2.50/oz

Rooibos Berry

Flavored with forest berries. $2.50/oz

Rooibos Jasmine

Flavored with the intoxicating smell of jasmine. $2.50/oz

Rooibos Mango

Flavored with tropical mangos. $2.50/oz

Rooibos Vanilla

Flavored with natural vanilla. $2.50/oz

Foxtrot

An herbal cocktail of Egyptian chamomile, South African Rooibos and fresh peppermint leaves. A soothing blend of familiar tastes that produces a pleasantly original combination. It is entirely caffeine-free - the spring in your step is due entirely to its enticing taste. $3.50/oz

White Tea

White tea is the most subtle of all the varieties of tea, using only the finest tea leaves from each bush with a minimal amount of processing. Considered by most connoisseurs to be the apotheosis of tea, white tea has yet to make a significant impact on Western culture. This will soon change, with new studies showing that white tea is 10% more effective in improving immune health than its green cousin.

Snowbud

White tea from the Fujian province of China. Snowbud as its name implies is an airy, light tea. And yields a cup worthy of its name: it is effervescent and graceful, with delicate, clean aroma. Snowbud is comprised exclusively of unprocessed leaves and buds, all gathered and dried in the early days of spring. $9.00/oz

White Peach

Premium white tea from Fujian region of China infused with the taste of ripe peaches. A wonderfully smooth and subtle treat, delectable both hot and cold. $6.50/oz

White Pear

Premium white tea from Fujian region of China infused with the taste of ripe pears. A wonderfully smooth and subtle treat, delectable both hot and cold. $6.50/oz

White Peony

White tea from the Fujian province of China. White Peony, known locally as Pai Mu Tan, is a delicate tea made from tea buds collected and withered prior to opening. The latest medical findings suggest that white tea may be a more effective cancer fighter than even green tea. These findings have brought white teas to a much wider audience. $6.50/oz

White Tropics

Premium white tea from Fujian region of China marrying the tropical flavors of pineapple and coconut. If you're new to white tea, this would be a good place to start. $6.50/oz

Green Tea

Green tea is often lauded for its amazing health benefits. However, in Asia, the birthplace of tea, green tea is enjoyed for its many dimensions of flavor, as well as medicinal effects. In China, there are nearly as many varieties of green tea as there are towns.

Casablanca Twist

A twist on Moroccan Mint tea, which traditionally combines Gunpowder tea from China with fresh peppermint. This tea keeps the latter and replaces the smoky notes of Gunpowder with the muscatel highlights of a First Flush Darjeeling from India. Fresh and smooth. $5.50/oz

Citron Green

Green tea from China with the delicate flavors of lemon and lime. Just the right touch of citrus flavors to liven up the cup. $2.50/oz

Li Zi Nutcracker

Li Zi is a popular tea in the Guangdong province of China that has only recently come to the West. Its name refers to chestnuts, hinting at its nutty taste and aroma. When dry, the leaves appear grey and matted but turn green when infused, producing a bright, clear cup. $3.50/oz

Mandarin Green

Green tea from China with the delicate flavors of orange and cinnamon. A happy marriage of great taste and proven health benefits. $3.50/oz

Pomegranate Green

Pomegranate has historically been a symbol of fertility, marriage, abundance, and righteousness. This tea blends Chinese Green tea with sweetly tart Pomegranate and decorative raspberry pieces. $3.50/oz

Raspberry Green

This lovely tea combines the sweetly tart flavor of red raspberries and premium green tea from China. $3.50/oz

Spiced Green

Green tea from China with the delicate flavors of cinnamon, cardamon, and ginger. Similar to a "chai tea." $3.50/oz

White Monkey

This Green tea (do not be confused by its name) grows in the Taimu mountains in the Fujian province of China. The young leaves and unopened buds are carefully gathered and processed exclusively by hand. It produces a light cup that is sweet with a fresh, delicate scent. $6.00/oz

Herbal Tea

Herbal tea has been imbibed as long as written history extends. Also known as a tisane or herbal infusion, it is simply the combination of boiling water and dried fruit, flower or herb. Herbal teas are all caffeine-free.

Blood Orange

Flavored by all natural orange peels, hibiscus flowers, apple pieces, rose hip and safflower. $2.75/oz

Chamomile

Chamomile is one of the oldest medicinal herbs. Considered a universal remedy by the ancient Egyptians, it is used to promote calm and relieve anxiety. The finest varieties, like this one, still come from Egypt. $3.00/oz

Dewy Cherry

Flavored by all natural sour cherries, apples, orange peels, rosehip, and hibiscus flowers. $3.00/oz

Foxtrot

An herbal cocktail of Egyptian chamomile, South African Rooibos and fresh peppermint leaves, Foxtrot tea is a soothing blend of familiar tastes that produces a pleasantly original combination. $3.50/oz

Lemon Grass

Dried lemon grass leaves make a zesty, refreshing drink that is known to lift a sagging spirit, as well as aid digestion. Recent studies also show that Lemon Grass has antibacterial and antifungal properties. $3.00/oz

Peppermint

Dried peppermint leaves make a minty, refreshing drink both hot and cold. A native of the Mediterranean, peppermint leaves were often used to crown luminaries in ancient Greece and Rome. $3.00/oz

Sour Apple

Flavored by all natural apple pieces, hibiscus flowers and cranberries. $3.00/oz

Wild Strawberry

Flavored by all natural apple pieces, hibiscus flowers and strawberries. $3.00/oz

Mango Mélange

Flavored by all natural apple pieces, hibiscus flowers, mango pieces and sunflower blossoms. $3.00/oz

Flavors

Flavored tea is the general name for any tea to which an additional flavor has been applied. While any tea can be a flavored tea, the more popular varieties for flavoring are black and green. Great improvements have been made in flavoring technology, making it possible to create nearly any flavored tea imaginable.

Blueberry

Studies are rolling in showing that one of the healthiest foods that you can eat is a blueberry. Studies on tea are pouring in as well, extolling its many health benefits. Our one-of-a-kind Blueberry tea combines the best of both worlds: the great flavor of blueberry with the bright, full taste of Ceylon black tea. $2.50/oz

Caramel

Delicious whether you say "car-a-mel" or "Car-mel." $2.50/oz

Chocolate

While the greatest chocolates may come from Switzerland, the best chocolate tea undoubtedly comes from Adagio. And you won't choose to remain neutral. This decadent treat infuses the flavor of rich chocolate with the bright, full taste of Ceylon black tea. $2.50/oz

Ginger

In the West, ginger is a very popular ingredient in many seasonal desserts. In the East, ginger is celebrated as a digestive and palate cleanser. Here, ginger is renowned as one of our favorite teas, combining the fresh taste of ginger with the rich taste of Ceylon black tea. $2.50/oz

Grapefruit

A wake up call to the senses! Our Grapefruit tea is invigorating both in scent as well as taste. This blend of premium Ceylon black tea and grapefruit is fantastic choice for a morning cup, or any time you need a citrus-infused pick-me-up. $2.50/oz

Mango

An ancient Hindu legend recounts the story of the mango tree growing from the ashes of the sun princess who had been incinerated by an evil sorceress. When the mango ripened and fell to the ground, the beautiful sun princess emerged. Adagio's bestselling Mango Tea combines the taste of Ceylon tea with the flavor of perfectly ripened mangoes. Sun princess sold separately. $2.50/oz

Oriental Spice

To most Westerners, it is a little known fact that the word 'Chai' simply means 'tea' in Hindi. Therefore, all teas are technically chais. However, instead of the 'chai' that most Americans are used to (which usually contains really bad tea), we offer an Oriental Spice tea - premium Ceylon black tea with a unique blend of Eastern spices. $2.50/oz

Passionfruit

Want to find that tea treasure that hasn't quite hit the popularity radar yet? Our Passionfruit tea artfully combines the pleasantly sweet tropical flavor of a fresh passionfruit with the bright, lively taste of Ceylon black tea. So if you're passionate about great flavored teas, look no further. Give our Passionfruit tea a try. $2.50/oz

Peach

In the famous poem 'The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock', T.S. Eliot wrote, 'do I dare to eat a peach?' The literary-minded folks at Adagio have taken it upon themselves to provide Mr. Eliot with an answer: no need to eat one. Just steep a cup of our premium Ceylon black tea flavored with sweet peaches. $2.50/oz

Rum

Premium black tea from China flavored with a spoonful of island rum. An intoxicating, but non-alcoholic, treat. $2.50/oz

Valentines

You're sure to fall 'head over heels' for this luxurious combination of the flavor of fresh-dipped chocolate-covered strawberries and premium Ceylon black tea. Shannon's favorite! $2.50/oz

Vanilla

According to the International Ice Cream Association, Vanilla is by far the most popular flavor, getting a full 23% of all ice cream consumption. Inspired by this love of vanilla, Adagio has created Vanilla Tea. Combining the delectable flavor of sweet vanilla beans and premium Ceylon black tea, I'll scream, you'll scream, we'll all scream for... Vanilla tea! $2.50/oz